

Northwestern Corporation, Energy Partners, Ltd., Veritas DGC Inc., Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., Trammell Crow Co., Hydril Company, Caremark RX, Inc., John H. Harland Co., and TXU Corp. (these companies are collectively referred to as the "Issuers" and the securities in these companies are collectively referred to as the "Subject Securities").

Credit Suisse was engaged to advise either the target company or the acquiring entity in connection with business combination transactions involving the Issuers (the "Subject Transactions"). NASEEM, who was not assigned to work on any of the Subject Transactions, repeatedly searched Credit Suisse's internal computer databases for confidential documents relating to the Subject Transactions, opened and read these documents, and passed the material non-public information concerning the Subject Transactions in these documents to RAHIM (the "Credit Suisse Inside Information"). NASEEM also was observed rummaging through papers on the desks of several analysts when the analysts were not present.

NASEEM provided the Credit Suisse Inside Information to RAHIM in violation of (a) the duties of trust and confidence owed by NASEEM to Credit Suisse and its clients, and (b) Credit Suisse's written policies, which NASEEM certified he understood, regarding the use and safekeeping of confidential and inside information.

NASEEM typically called RAHIM in Pakistan in advance of a public announcement that a particular Issuer was to be acquired by another entity. He then provided Credit Suisse Inside Information to RAHIM regarding the acquisition in question. Shortly after receiving such a call, RAHIM purchased securities in that Issuer based on the Credit Suisse Inside Information he received from NASEEM. RAHIM purchased the securities weeks before any public announcement was made regarding the Subject Transactions. Following public disclosure that an Issuer was being acquired, NASEEM and RAHIM sold all of the securities that they had purchased, earning millions of dollars in profits. NASEEM and RAHIM executed dozens of securities transactions, including trades in two offshore accounts, based on the Credit Suisse Inside Information. By the end of February 2007, NASEEM and RAHIM had profited from the trading in each of the Subject Securities and earned from the scheme total profits of more than $7.8 million.

NASEEM was found guilty of all 29 counts in the Indictment. The conspiracy charge carries a maximum sentence of 5 years' imprisonment and a maximum fine of the greater of $250,000 or twice the gross gain or gross loss from the offense. Each of the twenty-eight securities fraud counts carries a maximum sentence of 20 years' imprisonment and a maximum fine of the greater of $5 million or twice the gross gain or gross loss from the offense.

Following the verdict, Judge PATTERSON revoked NASEEM's bail, and NASEEM was remanded into prison. NASEEM is scheduled to be sentenced on April 7, 2008 at 4:00 p.m.

A warrant for RAHIM's arrest remains outstanding.

Mr. GARCIA praised the efforts of the FBI and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in the investigation of this case. Mr. GARCIA also thanked Credit Suisse for its cooperation and assistance.

Assistant United States Attorneys JOSHUA KLEIN and REED MICHAEL BRODSKY are in charge of the prosecution.
